ANTI-CORRUPTION AND ANTI-BRIBERY POLICY

Transportation & Services LEVITAS S.A.C. is engaged in providing two types of services to companies in Peru and abroad: TRANSPORTATION AND PRINTING SERVICES. The company commits to the following principles:

1. To prohibit any act of bribery , including offer, promise, delivery, acceptance, or request of any undue advantage, whether direct or indirect, as well as any incentive or reward of financial or non-financial value. Any breach of the anti-bribery commitments set forth in this policy shall be sanctioned in accordance with the criteria established by the organization.
2. To comply with all applicable legal requirements, relevant regulations, customer requirements, and voluntarily assumed commitments related to anti-bribery practices.
3. To promote and ensure active participation and consultation at all organizational levels, including employees, representatives, and relevant interested parties within the Anti-Bribery Management System.
4. To strengthen competencies and awareness among employees through training and awareness programs, ensuring the proper fulfillment of their obligations and responsibilities related to anti-bribery matters.
5. To promote good-faith reporting of potential or actual bribery situations, ensuring that any form of retaliation is strictly prohibited.
6. Establish an Anti-Bribery Compliance Function within the organization, whose authority and responsibility lie in the implementation and proper functioning of the Anti-Bribery Management System, acting in an impartial and independent manner.
7. To ensure effective internal and external communication related to the Integrated Management System.
8. Identify risks and opportunities associated with the Anti-Bribery Management System in order to ensure optimal performance and continuous improvement.
9. All employees of TRANSPORTATION & SERVICES LEVITAS S.A.C. are strictly prohibited from offering or receiving money, gifts, or favors in their commercial relationships.
